GODDARD A WHIRLWIND.

Defeated St. Michael's College by Score of 35 to 15.

Burlington, March 3.—The St. Michael's basketball team was at down to defeat on their own floor, at the hands of Goddard seminary last Saturday, by the score of 35 to 15. Marr played a star game for Goddard, carrying the ball from all sorts of positions and angles. He was ably seconded by his teammate, Fuller Slayton, who, although injured by a blow in the nose during the first half, played the entire game in whirlwind style. Goddard showed some fine pass work at different periods during the game and their shooting was accurate.

The St. Michael's team, although outclassed, put up a game fight and at the end of the first period the result was doubtful. Garvin played a fast game but seemed to be unable to cage the ball. Croteau, although playing well, was not up to his usual form in shooting. Clarke and Riley did some good guard work, but Clarke was handicapped by a lame ankle, which slowed up his game considerably. Fleming's floor work was good, but he seemed to have entirely lost his shooting eye.

The first period was unusually fast and the teams seemed equally matched. Marr shot the first basket for Goddard and they kept the lead throughout the game. In the second half Goddard had the game well in hand and St. Michael's was unable to do any effective work against them. The score was 16 to 10 at the beginning of the second half, after which Goddard scored 19 while St. Michael's made five points. The line-up and summary:

St. Michael's	Goddard
Garvin, f.	Fuller Slayton
Croteau, f.	Samuelson
Fleming, c.	Riley, Martin, g.
Riley, Martin, g.	Post, Slayton
Clarke, lg.	Holcomb, McGargon

Score, Goddard 36, St. Michael's 15; baskets, Marr 8, Fuller Slayton 5, Foster

Slayton 3, Garvin 2, Croteau 3, Fleming; baskets from free throws, Fuller Slayton 3, Garvin 3; time, 20-minute periods; referee, P. Lawler; scorers, Penders and Soule; timers, Bowen and Smith.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS

"PANDORA'S BOX"

According to Senator Sherman, Who Says It Will Unleash on United States the Aggregated Calamities of the World.

Washington, D. C., March 3.—The constitution of the league of nations as presented at the peace conference was pictured to the Senate to-day by Senator Sherman of Illinois, Republican; as a "Pandora's box full of evils," which would "empty upon the American people the aggregated calamities of the world." Senator Sherman sharply criticized President Wilson, asking who authorized him "to rear above the republic an autocratic power." He added that the authority was not to be found in the constitution of the United States nor was it implied from undefined war powers, and gave it as his opinion that the president had been acting either as "usurper or a dictator."

"I shall not ask as the dramatist," Senator Sherman said, "Now in the name of all the gods at once, upon what does this Caesar feed that he has grown so great?"

"He adroitly maneuvers himself into the spotlight as the fountain of peace perpetual and the guardian of mankind," Senator Sherman continued. "As he kept us out of the war in 1915, so he will keep us out of impending war, conjured up to serve the issues of 1920 and keep us at peace forever if we but accept him again. With him as the drum major of civilization, eternal peace, belting the earth and brooding like a gentle spirit over a still and credulous world proclaims the millennium is here."

"Like his neutrality device was the prelude to unprepared war his peace league engages not in one war, but in all wars that scourge the earth. It is simple but deadly. Apparently an open covenant of peace, it is a masked charter of unceasing war; the voice of Mars, but the hand of Woodrow."

Of the proposed constitution, Senator Sherman said it would set up an oligarchy of the worst possible sort, adding:

"If we cut the cables of constitutional government here we are caught in the irresistible tides that will sweep us into the maelstrom of the old world's bloody currents. The feuds and spoils of a thousand years will become our daily chart of action. All we can know is that a few men in some hidden chamber known as the executive council wield over us powers of life and death."

"The creation of a nameless thing to sit at state chamber judgment and decree implicit obedience to its mandates cannot be borne by free men. By an ukase it will embargo our commerce, close our exchanges, destroy credits, leave our merchandise rotting on piers, shut the Panama canal, order Congress to declare war, levy taxes, appropriate money, raise and support armies and navies, and dispatch our men to any quarter of the globe to fight and die because an alien executive council has willed it."

"Sincere men may have deceived themselves in the great hope for a perfect world, but no delusion, however sincere, will excuse this Senate from its duty to interpose its power against this universal Utopia promised by the president. It is the fabled apple of a great hope which will turn to ashes on a trusting people's lips. The Senate never fed a greater task nor a nobler duty. It will not ratify an emotion nor translate an impossible idealism into a weapon of national suicide."

Senator Sherman asserted that against the wisdom and experience of the American forefathers as summed up in Washington's farewell address, there was now rising up "the dreamer and the bookman, the socialist, the mere haphazard, in phrase which intoxicate and mislead." The senator urged that the warning of the founders of the American government to let Europe settle her own quarrels be regarded now, adding that when the United States went to war against a common danger it did not bind itself "in perpetual alliance to draw the sword whenever and so long as the majority of European governments voted it upon us."
